MISS SARAH FRANCES PEARSON

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Rowland, of Germantown. Miss Pearson's marriage to Mr. Robert Emmet Tracy, of Boston and this city, will take place June 24, at the home of the bride's parents, 444 East Tulpehocken street.

W. W. ATTERBURY WEDS MRS. A. M. MACLEOD

President Marries After Rumors of Engagement.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Walker, of 225 South 46th street, to Mr. William J. B. Loffland, took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, The Rev. George Hubert Troop, rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Vance Walker, as maid of honor, and Miss Ada Curran, as bridesmaid. Miss Sara Funston and Miss Julia Vineyard as ribbon bearers. The bride wore a gown of soft white duchesse satin trimmed with duchesse lace with a court train. Her long tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in buff-colored crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of roses, while the bridesmaid was in pale pink pompadour silk carrying pink roses.

Mr. Clifford Stretch acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Joseph Funston and Mr. Bayard Vineyard. Following the ceremony a reception was held at which Mr. and Mrs. Loffland left for their wedding trip. Upon their return they will live at 225 South 46th street.

Mr. Atterbury is vice president in charge of operations of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He has been in the service of that company since 1886, when he entered the Altoona shops as an apprentice. He was born at New Albany, Ind., on January 13, 1864. His grandfather was Lewis Atterbury and his grandmother Catherine Boudinot, niece of Elias Boudinot, at one time president of the Continental Congress.

He was graduated from Yale before taking up railroad work. From 1889 to 1892 he served as assistant road foreman of engines on various divisions of the Pennsylvania system. On October 25, 1896, he was appointed superintendent of motive power of the line east of Pittsburgh and Erie, and on October 1, 1901, made general superintendent of motive power. After serving as general manager of the line east of Pittsburgh from 1903 to 1909, he was elevated to the vice presidency.

Mr. Atterbury is a member of the Rittenhouse Club, the Union League of Philadelphia, the Union League of New York, the Dignitary Club of Pittsburgh, the Maryland Club of Baltimore and the Metropolitan Club of Washington. He also is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Mrs. Atterbury is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Rosengarten. She has three children by her first marriage, Elizabeth MacLeod, Malcolm MacLeod, Jr., and Harry R. MacLeod. She is a sister of Mrs. Lewis Nelson, and her brothers are Adolph Rosengarten, George Rosengarten, Fritz Rosengarten and Joseph Rosengarten, Jr.
